GENERAL DIRECTIONS

ORDER EARLY. We request our customers to order as early as possible on receipt of catalogue. We endeavor to ship all orders immediately on receipt, but during the busy season it is almost impossible; hence, the importance of ordering early.

Orders for Bulbs, Plants and Nursery Stock will be shipped in due time for planting in season.

PARCELS POST. We deliver free by Parcels Post all seeds, except Beans, Corn, Peas, Farm Seeds or Clovers. If these are wanted by mail, please add the cost of postage at zone rates.

Fertilizers, insecticides, sundries, trees and plants are at all times excluded from free delivery.

No charge for delivery to railroad station, steamer or express office.

ESTATE SUPERINTENDENTS, GARDENERS AND FARMERS. Parties requiring the services of reliable men, married or single, should consult with us, as we have the names of a number on our register, thoroughly experienced in every branch of the business. We have a large acquaintance among gardeners in this vicinity, and it is seldom that anyone who applies to us fails of getting the right party. There is no charge for this service.

SPECIAL NOTICE—PRICES

The prices published in this catalogue are subject to market changes without notice. Owing to the fluctuating market in prices of all materials, we cannot bind ourselves on prices of any articles.

Payment. All orders should be accompanied by cash in the form of Draft, Cheque or P. O. Order. Owing to the difficulty in collecting accounts, no order will be attended to unless accompanied by remittance, from parties unknown to us or those whose accounts remain unsettled.

C. O. D. SHIPMENTS. We are always pleased to supply seeds to be paid for on delivery. Bulbs, Plants, Fertilizers, Insecticides and Perishable Stock will not be sent C. O. D. unless 50 per cent cash accompanies the order.

WE ISSUE THE FOLLOWING CATALOGUES AND SPECIAL LISTS

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS, MACHINERY, ETC. A complete list of farm tools.

BULB CATALOGUE. Ready about July 1st, containing a complete list of all bulbs for Fall planting and green-house forcing.

GOLF COURSE AND TENNIS COURSE EQUIPMENT. Illustrated list.

LILIES. A complete list of over 100 varieties described and illustrated. (See boxed paragraph below).

TRAINED FRUIT TREES. Illustrated folder with varieties and cultural instructions.

HARDY GARDEN LILIES

One of our specialties is "The Lily," and on that most interesting subject we have compiled the most comprehensive catalogue ever published and wherein all details of planting and culture will be found, including colored plates of nearly all the varieties in commerce. Owing to the great expense incurred in producing this valuable Lily book we are obliged to charge one dollar for same, which will be credited to the purchase of the first order for Lilies to the amount of three dollars or over. This means that credit slip for one dollar received with book should be sent with your first order for lilies amounting to $3.00 or over.

Foreword

A gardening catalogue, that is really representative of the choicest and best products in the various departments of Horticulture, requires a tremendous effort on the part of those who assist in its preparation, for it is apparent that it cannot be the work of one individual. The mere printing and illustrating is nothing as compared with the work involved in the preparation of the text. An organization such as ours, where each department is managed by a capably trained and efficient executive, must show continual progress all along the line through its offerings to the gardening public, in order to maintain its well-established reputation as a reliable and responsible institution.

Research in plant life, as in science, is one of the most potent impulses to progress. The seeking of new plants in their native haunts in distant and heretofore inaccessible regions,—the efforts of the hybridist to produce a new color or improved form of an already known type—the acceptance or discarding of an assumed novelty by our judgment of its merit—its worthiness to be pronounced distinct and unusual and to be classed as a novelty:—These are a few of the progressive steps that become problems to our executives and whose opinion can only be based upon their intimate familiarity, acquired by years of experience, with varieties and types already existing.

We aim to keep all our departments up to date. We include those items that show merit over older but similar types, which are discarded. Whether it be a flower, vegetable, plant or tree, each is given its true interpretation in color, size, character and general utility.

Research in Lilies alone has brought us in contact with some 110 or 115 varieties gathered in the distant regions of every continent in the world; these have been carefully classified, described and illustrated and are offered to our American friends, in such a comprehensive form, that the merest amateur can have lilies in his garden that were previously unheard of. Many of them are listed in this catalogue, but complete descriptions are given in our book "Consider the Lilies" devoted to Lilies exclusively (see page 61).

A careful glance through our lists of Vegetables, Flowers, Bulbs, Hardy Plants, Trees, Shrubs, and Horticultural Supplies, will demonstrate this same spirit of progress that has guided all our Department Heads in the preparation of their "copy" for this book, which is acknowledged to be one of the most authentic, "easy reference" gardening catalogues published in this country.

In closing, may we add that "quality" is considered above everything else in selecting the stocks we sell. Our domestic and foreign sources of supply are houses of known repute, our dealings with many of them dating back to the day "MARSHALL'S MATCHLESS SEEDS" was first inscribed in printer's ink.

Novelties and Specialties in Flower Seeds

The growth of our Flower Seed Business is indicative of the discrimination of our clients, who recognize in our seeds a superiority not to be found in cheaper grades or strains. Prize winning or selected strains of flower seeds cost a little more than inferior grades but the results are infinitely superior.

AQUILEGIA Coerulea cuprea "Copper Queen." The long spurred hybrids of the Columbine deservedly enjoy ever increasing popularity. A gorgeous new shade has been added to the riot of colors in which they are now available. A rich glowing coppery red with long spurs of deeper hue. The seed we offer can be relied upon to yield about 80 per cent true to type seedlings. Per packet 35c.

ANCHUSA Annual "Blue Bird." A compact grower, bearing its flowers in a glorious bouquet at the top of the plant. The blossoms, of vivid indigo blue, are very effective in beds or borders. Per packet 50c.

CELOSIA globosa. A new Japanese form of Celosia having a globe shaped flower head about 5 inches in diameter. The color is a bright scarlet crimson. It makes a desirable pot plant or for bedding. Height 24 inches. Per packet 25c.; 1/8 oz. $1.00.

CENTAUREA Cyanus "Mauve Queen." A new color in double Corn-flowers. It is a pleasing shade of mauve and when bunched looks particularly attractive. Per packet 35c.

COSMOS Hollywood Star. An odd and striking star shaped flower with red, pink and white flowers on long stems suitable for cutting and borders. Per packet 50c.

Cosmos, Hollywood Star

Dahlia, Orchid-Flowered

DAHLIA Seed. Dahlia "fans" who "grow their own" will find a message of vast importance to them on page 58.

DAHLIA Orchid Flowered. (Starfish). These are single Dahlias of medium height, with twisted petals that give the flowers a star effect. The colors range from white, red, orange and yellow shades. Often the petals are dotted and blotched both on the top and the bottom so that, as the flower opens, the twisted petals gives it a bizarre effect. Per packet 50c.

DELPHINIUM "Wrexham" Hybrids. Though no longer to be included in the category of novelties this superior strain of "hardy Larkspur" so far outclasses all other types, that we again wish to focus the attention of flower lovers on it. Massive broad based spikes in many gorgeous shades. Our Wrexham strain is rapidly replacing the various other types hitherto offered, as the last word in Delphiniums. Wrexham Delphiniums are at their best silhouetted against a clump of Lilium Candidum. Per packet $2.00.

GAILLARDIA Dazzler. A giant type of Gaillardia. Large dark, rich red flowers with bright orange tips. Per packet 35c.

HELIANTHUS Maroon Prince. A dwarf growing red Sunflower. It is a true maroon color, single and unquestionably the best dwarf red variety. Per packet 35c.

PETUNIA, Marshall's Violet Queen

This exquisite Single Petunia grows from 12 to 18 inches in height. The color, dark violet without a trace of magenta surpasses any of its type for borders and bedding. Plants are robust and continuous bloomers, with flowers averaging from $2\frac{1}{2}$ to 3 inches across from early summer until late fall. Pkt. 75 cts.

DIANTHUS Sweet Wivelsfield. (Dianthus Allwoodii x D. Barbatus). A remarkable hybrid that is quite distinct in method of flowering and habit of growth from the Annual Sweet William. It has a great variety of color and a very long season of blooming. Seeds sown in the early spring will flower during the late summer. Per packet 75c.

INCARVILLEA Variabilis Hybrids. A new perennial, which if planted early in the spring, can be handled as an annual. The colors range from yellow and white to deep pink, with many shades of pink in the collection. Valuable for borders with its attractive trumpet shaped flowers. Per packet 50c.

LARKSPUR La France. Large, well formed double flowers well placed on long stems. Color a pleasing salmon pink. A very vigorous grower and will add to the growing popularity of Annual Larkspurs. Per packet 50c.; oz. $2.50.

LUPIN Northern Torchlight. A beautiful warm carmine and cherry red, maintaining its glowing color right through the spike. Up to the present the nearest approach to scarlet. Per packet 75c.

MARIGOLD "Marshall's Giant or Tree." In type it closely resembles a French Marigold but the colorings and size of flower are much superior. They grow from 4 to 5 feet high making a fine decorative plant and the flowers do not have the unpleasant odor of the Marigold. Per packet 35c.

MIGNONETTE Ball. This strain produces full heavy spikes of light colored flowers and is two or three weeks earlier than New York Market. Per packet $1.00.

PANSY "Marshall's Apricot Bedder." Here we offer a splendid bedding Pansy of large size and of exceptionally fine color which is best described as a rich deep apricot deepening towards the center. This, grown in conjunction with Giant Pansy "King of the Blacks" (offered on Page 18) will provide an uncommonly beautiful color combination. Per packet 50c.

Dianthus, Sweet Wivelsfield

POPPY Nudicaule Coonara Pinks. Long stemmed flowers in lovely rose and pink shades. A vigorous grower. Per packet 50c.

STOCK Perpetual Ten Week "Light Copper." An excellent variety, very long flower spikes; highly recommended for cut flowers. Per packet 50c.

URSINIA Anethoides. A very attractive annual, being easy to grow and is very showy for cutting or garden decoration. The Daisy like flowers are rich orange in color with a ring of deep purple at the base. Per packet 50c.

VERBASCUM Large Flowered Hybrids. An old fashioned perennial which, through the skill of the "plant wizards" or hybridists, has been much improved in form and color and the strain we offer has been grown by one of Europe's specialists for our trade. Splendid for bold clumps or for massing in shrubbery, border or wild garden, where their tall spikes of color show to best advantage. Per packet 35c.

NEW AND DISTINCTIVE PLANTS

AMPELOPSIS tricuspidata atropurpurea. A new variety of Boston Ivy with the same habits but with dark purple leaves not changing to green. Plants in 3 inch pots. Each 75c. 10 for $7.00.

DELPHINIUM PLANTS
NAMED VARIETIES

Marshall's Quintet of Five Named Varieties. They are undescribably magnificent with florets from two to three inches across well set on towering plants 5 to 6 feet high. All plants are sturdy and vigorously wintered, are shipped balled and burlapped by express and arrive in perfect condition. See color plate page 2B.

PHILADELPHUS Virginal. A handsome erect shrub which covers itself with very large double white flowers in June and continues to bloom at the tips of the new shoots all Summer and Fall. It is the favorite of all lovers of these beautiful shrubs.
2 to 3 ft. $1.00 each.

NEW CLIMBING ROSE Mme. Gregoire Staechelin. A new type of hardy Climbing Rose with the vigor, hardiness and size of bloom of Druschki. Color pearl pink with claret-carmine markings on the outer petal. Two year old plants. Each $2.50.

ALL FLOWER SEEDS ARE MAILED FREE AT PACKET, OUNCE AND POUND RATE TO ANY POST OFFICE IN THE UNITED STATES

The following list contains a most complete assortment of the choicest and most popular flowers for either conservatory, greenhouse or garden culture.

Annuals grow from seed, flower, mature their seed, and die in one year, or, in other words, the same season.

Hardy Annuals are those which can be sown in the open ground.

Half-Hardy Annuals are those which should be started early in the house, conservatory or hotbed, and transplanted to the garden in settled warm weather.

Biennials grow from seed, sown from June to August, flower, ripen their seed and die the next year, though some varieties bloom the same season if sown early in gentle heat.

Hardy Biennials will winter in the open ground without protection.

Perennials grow from seed, and continue flowering annually for many years after the first season. Some varieties flower the first season if planted early in gentle heat.

Half-Hardy Biennials require the protection of a coldframe or cool house during Winter.

Hardy Perennials can remain in the open ground during Winter without protection.

Half-Hardy Perennials require the protection of a coldframe or cool house during the Winter.

Tender or Greenhouse Perennials require window or greenhouse culture, free from frost during Winter and thrive in the garden during the warm months.

ASTERS

Plants from seeds sown in the open ground in May bloom finely in September and October, when the flowers are seen at their best. For July and August flowers sow in March or April, in coldframe, spent hotbed, or pots and boxes in the house. Cover the seeds about half an inch deep with rich, light soil, and when the plants have three or four leaves, transplant about 18 inches apart each way into well prepared beds.

SWEET PEAS

There are no Annual Climbers that are more popular or more universally admired than Sweet Peas. They are of the easiest culture, unrivaled for cutting, delightfully fragrant, while their colors are amongst the brightest and daintiest in the floral world. As soon as the ground can be worked in the Spring, sow the seed in trenches at least 6 inches in depth, then as the plants grow fill in the soil about one inch at a time until the trenches are full, taking care not to cover the young plants. Liquid manure applied occasionally will be found very beneficial. Pick the flowers frequently, for if allowed to form seed the plants will soon stop blooming.

MARSHALL'S SPENCER TYPE SWEET PEAS

The Spencer Types of Sweet Peas are a great improvement over the large flowering varieties. For cutting and exhibition purposes they are indispensable. The following varieties are a selection of the many kinds of this class best adapted for general use.

Seeds of Plants

Suitable for use in

ROCK GARDENS

Being frequently asked to recommend seeds of plants, not necessarily alpines—suitable for use in American rock gardens, we have compiled the following lists for ready reference. All those offered are of easy culture and can be relied upon to give greater general satisfaction than is usually obtained with the rarer and more difficult alpines.

While the veteran rock gardener may decry the use of annuals in the rock garden, we stress their utility for making a quick showing either in temporarily replacing losses or for immediate effect in newly constructed rock gardens.

Containing 12 rows of broad, yellow, sweet grains. Especially valuable for its extreme earliness. (See illustration page 34.) ½ pt. 20c., pt. 40c., qt. 75c.

Squash Giant Summer Straightneck

LETTUCE Marshall's Matchless. This wonderful, tender, Lettuce which is a cross between a head variety and the Cos type, originated in California a few years ago and came to our attention by a private grower. It is the sweetest and tenderest variety grown. The crown portion of the head is slightly loose, with a small yellow head. It is an ideal variety for the home or private gardener. (See illustration, page 37.) Pkt. 10c., oz. 75c., ¼ lb. $2.00.

PEPPER-TOMATO The scarlet, oval-shaped fruits are a cross between a Pepper and a Tomato. The flavor is similar to the Tomato, but the fruit is more solid and a very small seed cavity. The plant is a vigorous grower and should be given plenty of room for growth. Pkt. 25c.

SPINACH Perpetual Summer. Resembling Swiss Chard only that the leaves are much smaller and tender. It can be cut continually from early Summer until late Fall. Leaves are green and make a delicious Spinach when cooked. Pkt. 10c., oz. 30c., ¼ lb. $1.00.

MUSHROOM SPAWN

Ten pounds will spawn about 10 feet square.

Mushroom beds may be made in a warm, dry cellar, or in any building where the frost does not penetrate and in the open air during the Summer and Fall months. Having procured the spawn, the next thing to be attended to is to make preparation for the beds. About two or three weeks before the beds are to be made collect a quantity of fresh horse manure without the straw; place it in a heap under cover, and as it heats keep turning it over once or twice a week, until the fiery heat has become exhausted, which will require from ten to fourteen days' time. When the manure is in a condition to be made up lay out your bed, according to your requirements, say 3 feet wide, 10 feet long and from 2 to 3 feet deep; beat it down well with the back of the spade as the process of building goes on. When the bed has been made some time, say a week or thereabouts, and the heat sufficiently declined to a temperature of 65 or 75 degrees, the spawn may be put into it. Break the spawn in pieces 2 inches square, and put them 6 inches apart, all over the bed; then cover the bed with 2 inches of rich soil. If everything goes on well, you may expect Mushrooms in about five or six weeks. When the soil looks dry give a gentle watering with tepid water, using a rose on the watering pot. Good crops of Mushrooms can be obtained by spawning the hotbeds in Spring.

POTATOES GROWN EXPRESSLY FOR SEED IN MAINE

Peck will plant 100 foot row. Ten bushels cut tubers will plant 1 acre.

The Potato, like the robust-growing vegetable, can be grown with varying success on soils of all kinds and in all conditions of fertility, but the soil best suited to it is a sandy loam. Manure is applied either in rows or hills or broadcast over the hills and ploughed in—the latter in most cases being preferable. In highly enriched soils the plants are more liable to disease than when grown in soil that is naturally good. Plant as early in Spring as the ground can be had in fair working order, in hills or ridges, about 3 feet apart, cover lightly with soil about 4 inches deep.

Beauty of Hebron. Slightly flesh colored skin, with pure white flesh; very productive and of the finest quality.

Bovee. Extra early; fine quality; flesh white.

Dibble's Russet. This is the best main crop Potato in cultivation. The tubers are round to oblong in shape, good size, white flesh and covered with a russet skin. The quality when cooked cannot be excelled. It also has great disease-resistant and blightproof properties.

POMPON DAHLIAS

Our offerings in these miniature dahlias will be welcomed by the increasing hosts of their admirers. Our illustration gives a faint idea of the range of colors and combination of shades in which pompon dahlias are now available. We pride ourselves in being able to offer the largest collection of these gems obtainable anywhere. Our exhibit at the 1929 American Dahlia Society Show was admired, and acclaimed to be the best exhibit of Pompons ever staged.

For list of varieties see page 55.

POMPOM DAHLIAS

Pompom Dahlias, long forgotten and neglected, have staged a "come back" and the reception accorded them by the visitors to our exhibit at the last New York Dahlia Show augurs well for their popularity. Easier to grow than their larger kindred, giving more prodigally of their brilliant blooms, they will be found most useful either as a cut flower or for permanent garden decoration. Being of rather dwarf growth they require very little support and disbudding is quite unnecessary. The popular prices of these little beauties will enable all lovers of flowers to grow a wide selection of varieties.

Dahlia's from Seed

Wonderful Dahlias may be grown from seed and they will bloom the first season, making as large plants and tubers as if grown from bulbs. Bear in mind that each seedling will be a new variety. This makes it the most fascinating part of growing Dahlias. They are seldom like the parent plant in type or color. All the fancy Dahlias of today were grown from seed. Many of them were produced by seed grown by amateurs and sold to growers at fancy prices.

Seed produced in Southern California is superior to that from any other place, as the climate conditions are such that the extra large double varieties produce seed. This is due to the long, rainless seasons.

Growing Dahlias from seed is one of the most interesting stages of Dahlia cultivation. Our seed is carefully selected from the choicest varieties. We send postpaid to any post office in the United States, Dahlia seeds in packets.

We are offering $50.00 for the best seedling grown from this seed and shown at the A. D. S. Show, Sept. 1930.

First Prize, $25.00; Second Prize, $15.00;
Third Prize, $10.00

This is a compact and handy work-book for the grower of Gladiolus, both for cut flowers and for pleasing effects in the home garden.

The suggestions on how and where to use "Glads" and types and varieties will be helpful in making out orders. The chapters on care and culture, increasing the stock, creating new varieties, growing and exhibition, and harvesting and storing, will bring pleasure and success throughout the growing season.

Mr. Rockwell is himself a grower of "Glads," has had life experience in the commercial production of the bulbs, and is the author of several books on gardening.

Learn More About Lilies!

Lilies—symbols of purity, majesty, elegance and grace, have established and maintain for themselves a unique position in the affections and esteem of flower lovers throughout the world. Down through the corridors of the ages they have come to us—a rich heritage, periodically supplemented with rarer and choicer species, as the borders of civilization have been broadened, and man has wrested from Nature the secrets of her hidden treasures.

“Consider the Lilies”

The first edition of our book “Consider the Lilies” was accepted by the world’s greatest horticulturists as one of the most interesting, authentic, and glorified treatises on Lilies ever published.

The Second Edition (now ready) surpasses its predecessor in every way. More descriptive and cultural matter has been added, several new varieties have been included, and pictures of the most delightful old and interesting new types are gloriously and truthfully reproduced in natural colors.

No expense has been spared, no effort shirked in its compilation; it is a book that every recipient will read and frequently refer to for authentic information on the Great Family of Lilies.

The above book will be sent postpaid to any address in the United States upon receipt of $1.00. Upon request it will be sent FREE with orders for Lilies amounting to $3.00 or more.

NOTE PRICE CHANGES

Those who have already received our Lily Book should write for price list for 1930 wherein they will find many price changes to their advantage. It is the policy of the firm to endeavor to reduce prices where possible and particularly so in the higher priced varieties to encourage growing of some of the choicer kinds.

LILIES FROM SEED

Growing some of the easier types of Lilies from seed is a fascinating pastime. In our efforts to encourage the growing of the more popular varieties we are offering a limited quantity of seed harvested by us in our trial grounds. The best method is to sow the seed in flats of well drained soil composed of $\frac{1}{3}$ good garden loam, $\frac{1}{3}$ leaf mold and $\frac{1}{3}$ sharp sand and gravel mixed in equal parts. Growing Lilies from seed is by no means a simple process. It requires abundant patience and close attention. We offer seed of the following varieties:

WARD'S LILY "The Pink Martagon"

This beautiful Lily was found by Capt. Kingdom Ward in his 1924-25 expedition into Tibet and when I brought into bloom from seed sent to England it was supposed to be L. Taliense found by C. K. Schneider near Tieliang Fu in 1914. It is now claimed by observations made by comparing dry specimens of the latter with Ward's Lily, growing at the Edinburgh Botanics, that they are two distinct species, but E. H. Wilson, our recognized authority on Lilies, claims that Ward's Lily to be none other than the lost L. Taliense. This controversy does not detract from the fact that this is a very fine Lily, as we are greatly in need of a robust growing hardy pink form. July flowering, 3 to 4 ft.

Offered for the first time for sale, flowering bulbs $15.00 each
Cultural directions furnished with each order.

LILIUM CENTIFOLIUM

We are now in a position to supply good flowering bulbs of this magnificent Lily, known as Farmer's No. 316 and supposed to have been discovered in a cabbage patch in China. It is certainly a giant amongst Lilies and grows to a height of 12 feet when established.

Cultural Directions—A wide hole about three feet deep should be dug, a layer of broken bricks for drainage, then filled with a mixture of good loam and leaf soil in equal parts and a liberal addition of silver sand and charcoal. The bulbs should be planted nine inches deep surrounded with silver sand. The situation should be well sheltered from the north, dry in winter but fairly moist in summer. It appears to take kindly to lime; July flowering.

Flowering bulbs for Spring delivery, 1930; $12.00 each; Fall delivery, 1930, $10.00 each

LILIUM SULPHUREUM

We cannot speak too highly of this beautiful species coming from Upper Burma. We do not recommend it as a hardy Lily north of Washington, D. C., although it has been known to winter in Vermont.

The bulbs may be started in pots inside and when the weather is suitable the pots may be plunged in the ground and taken up again after flowering in the Fall. Height 6 feet. August flowering. An excellent Lily for pot culture.

Bulbs 8 inches-10 inches, Each $2.00; doz. $20.00; 100 $150.00

LILIUM GIGANTEUM HIMALAICUM

A most gigantic Lily, requiring a moist root situation in woods where very little sun penetrates. The large bulbs should never rest in moisture although the roots prefer a cool, damp condition.

Mr. W. E. Marshall in his recent visit to Europe saw large numbers of this wonderful Lily in England and Scotland growing in woodlands, towering 10 to 12 feet in height, some of them bearing as many as 12 flowers measuring each 10 inches in length. He considers spring a suitable time for planting in America.

HARDY LILIES

Among the stateliest of all hardy plants, Lilies during their respective flowering seasons, constitute the chief attraction in the hardy border. They prefer a well-drained soil, and should remain undisturbed for years. In the Autumn give the bulbs a heavy mulching of leaves; coarse manure or straw will prove highly beneficial. Plant all Lilies as early as possible in the Spring.

All bulbs offered by us are flowering size. Some of these may be quite small, while others are large owing to the nature of the Lily. By noting in the column "Size of bulb," we have tried to give the purchaser an approximate idea of what to expect. The figures give the size in circumference. For instance, 9-11 means that the bulbs are 9 to 11 inches in circumference.

LILIES FOR THE BEGINNER

No garden, no matter how small should be without Lilies as they lend themselves to all phases of garden design. Therefore there is always room to plant a few amongst other flowers as their foliage takes little room and the top roots of the bulbs require the protection of other plants.

For spring planting we would recommend the following in the order that they would appear in succession of bloom. Elegans, Regale, Auratum, Henryi and Speciosum. If there is room for only one Lily then try Regale which can withstand a rigorous climate and at the same time thrives luxuriantly in the southern states.

ROSES—Hybrid Tea, or Everblooming

This selection will produce a mass of Roses to cut from the entire season. The plants are American, two-year-old, and the varieties are the very best for outdoor culture; invaluable either for display or cutting and are hardy with protection.

Being almost as hardy as the June Roses, they can be treated in a similar way with regard to pruning.

All strong, American two-year-old field grown plants, $1.00 each, $9.00 for 10.

SUGGESTIONS FOR SPRING PLANTING OF ROSES

The soil should be thoroughly cultivated and a liberal supply of rotted manure added. In planting, dig a hole sufficiently large to accommodate the roots when spread out on the bottom of the hole. In filling in the soil, shake the plant lightly in order that the soil may mix between the roots. Fill in the soil and firm it in order that the plant may be solid. Be sure to see that the lower parts of the lower branches are below the surface of the soil. Do not plant in a mound, the surface should be level. Cut back the branches to within 4 to 6 inches of the surface of the ground. With this treatment the best results may be obtained.

Marshall's Trained Fruit Trees

Specially Budded on "Dwarfing" Under Stocks

Trained fruit trees are grown to a far greater extent in European gardens than they are in this country, and we believe this is due more to the lack of production by American nurserymen, rather than a disinterestedness by private gardeners.

Previous to the Federal Horticultural embargo these trained fruit trees were imported from England and France, but during the embargo period, they have seemingly gone off the market—no American-trained trees being available.

We are sure many gardeners and amateurs will welcome our offer of trained trees in Apples, Pears, Peaches and Cherries at this time. They have been grown for us by one who has literally spent a lifetime on the "other side" in this very interesting work, and the shapely specimens express the care and skillful pruning to which they have been subjected.

Trained fruit trees should have a place in every garden. (In England they may be seen in both vegetable and flower gardens.) It is a simple matter to erect a "post and wire" fence to which they may be lightly tied or to a "wired wall," which is accomplished by driving wooden pegs into the wall at intervals of 1 foot each way, leaving 3-4 inches protruding, to which the galvanized wires are horizontally attached by staples. The "leaders" of the trees are carefully tied to the wires, by "figure of eight" loops of tarred twine or heavy raffia, which allows limited leeway and prevents chafing.

Grown on the post and wire method, Apples, Pears, Peaches and Cherries are very ornamental in the garden—indeed they make a useful and artistic wind screen and background to flower beds and borders, the highly-colored fruit adding further brightness to the general tone of the border.

They bear very considerable crops of splendidly colored, large fruit, without shading or otherwise interfering with the flowers or vegetable crops planted nearby; fruit is easily gathered and trees are readily manured and pruned.

The special "dwarfing" stocks upon which they are grafted prevent vigorous "lateral" growths, and by careful pruning they will develop fruit spurs over the complete length of the main stems, thus keeping the trees shapely and well provided with fruit.

The chief object in training fruit is to cover as large a surface as possible and at the same time to have the full strength of growth equally distributed throughout a given space. For this purpose we consider the "U-form" and the "Palmette-Verrier" the better adaptable. The branches that are trained vertically will bear fruit, large and better-formed, and more productively than trees that are allowed to grow at their ease.

It is a peculiar feature of a trained fruit tree how quickly and evenly it will develop fruit-bearing side branches that are short and symmetrical in growth. A trained fruit tree, grafted on the proper understock, easily demonstrates its character and its purposes as it takes only three years to develop fruit. Meanwhile, by encouraging the development of the lateral fruiting spurs (by stopping the lateral leaders) it is absolutely possible to determine three years in advance the amount of fruit the tree will bear, as the fruit branches may be so controlled to bear the same amount of fruit from year to year.

FRUIT TREES

Planting.—Make the holes large enough to admit the roots without cramping or bending, and deep enough to set the trees to their natural depth. Fine surface soil should be used for covering the roots, and this should be carefully mixed among them. If the ground is dry, it is well to pour in some water when the hole is partially filled. See that the ground is firmly and solidly packed over all parts of the roots. Fill the holes full enough to be even with the surrounding surface after the fresh earth settles. Never use manure in contact with the roots
